Prophet Musa (A.S.)'s Miraculous Encounter on Mount Tur

When he saw a fire, he said to his family, "Wait here, for I have spotted a fire. Perhaps I can bring you a torch from it, or find some guidance at the fire."

Quran, Surah Taha (20:10)

READ THIS PARAGRAPH ABOUT PROPHET MUSA (A.S.) TO SEE AN EXAMPLE OF WELL-ORGANIZED SENTENCES.

Musa (A.S.) detoured from his journey toward Mount Tur to get light for his family, but instead, something incredible happened. As he neared the fire, a mighty voice spoke, "I am Allah, the Lord of the Universe." Musa (A.S.) was bewildered and startled as he looked all around. The voice asked, "What's that you're holding, Musa?" Shaking, Musa (A.S.) replied, "this is my staff on which I lean, and with which I beat down branches for my sheep." The voice told him to toss it on the ground. He did, and it miraculously turned into a serpent. Terrified, Musa (A.S.) tried to run. At that moment, the voice reassured him, "Fear not and grasp it; We shall return it to its former state." By this time Musa (A.S.) realized that something incredible was happening. That was the start of Musa (A.S.)'s journey to prophethood. He felt peaceful knowing that he was experiencing something extraordinarily divine.
